

Invitation to Join

Hello! About a year ago I was at a large conference for women when a speaker said something that took root in my heart and hasn't let go. She urged each of us to notice when we are chatting in a group and another woman walks by alone.

She said, "Open your circle and invite her in."

Maybe part of the reason it struck me so much is that as a former Post Producer for The Oprah Winfrey Show and bestselling parenting author, my own inner circle is filled with incredible women in the world of publishing, marketing, speaking, and media. I know that writing can be an isolating experience, and we all need community now more than ever. So, I've opened that inner circle to invite you in.

I've created a community for soon-to-be or already published women nonfiction authors called Doyenne Author's Circle. Weird name right? Well, the French word "doyenne" (pronounced dwa-yen) means "the most respected woman in a particular field; a wise woman." In other words, you.

The purpose of Doyenne Author's Circle is to give you valuable access to answers that can make all the difference to your success, and help you build a successful and powerful platform so you can truly change the world with your words and wisdom.

This is your opportunity to join Doyenne Author's Circle for only $97/month.

Doyenne Author's Circle is a monthly membership with a focus on platform building for authors + resources + community + support. CLICK HERE  to join!

People "on the inside" of the publishing world rarely share real, practical details about what actually helps authors be successful.

It's time to change that!

Is Doyenne Author's Circle right for me? Yes, if...

- You're a woman who is a soon-to-be or already published nonfiction author
- Your work can help others but sometimes you feel like a best-kept secret
- You would enjoy being a part of a supportive, kind, and respectful community
- You would love to have exclusive access to publishing and book marketing experts to get actionable information about how to build and expand your platform as an author so you can sell more books, grow your followers, and make a bigger impact!

Am I making along term commitment?

- No - this is a monthly membership. Stay as long as you like. You can cancel any time and won't be billed the following month.

Does my book have to be published already?

- DAC is designed for published or soon-to-be published nonfiction authors. Since authors often write more than one book, we'll have resources focused on all aspects of planning, pen to paper (writing), publishing, promoting, platform building, and prospering as an author. In fact, we have a Progress Path specifically designed to help you move successfully from each stage of an author's journey to the next.

Is there a Facebook group?

- No, I find that their groups can get overwhelming in terms of how to locate posts and find resources. Plus, I genuinely don't know what data they gather about members. Your time and privacy are important to me!
- We do however have a wonderful Community Center on Kajabi along with all the membership content so it will be as convenient as possible for you. And you won't ever feel like you are being marketed when you come into the group.
